Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated , requesting an extension of time pursuant to § 301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations for Taxpayer to make an election under § 59(e) of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year ending Date.

According to the information submitted, Taxpayer did not timely make the election under § 59(e) for the taxable year ending Date. Taxpayer has made representations explaining why the election under § 59(e) was not timely filed.

Section 59(e) provides an optional 10-year write-off of certain tax preferences. Section 59(e)(4) provides that an election may be made under § 59(e)(1) with respect to any portion of any qualified expenditure.

Section 1.59-1(b)(1) of the Income Tax Regulations provides that an election under § 59(e) can only be made by attaching a statement to the taxpayer's income tax return for the taxable year in which the amortization of the qualified expenditures subject to the § 59(e) election begins. The statement must be filed no later than the date prescribed by law for filing the taxpayer's original income tax return (including any extensions of time) for the taxable year in which the amortization of the qualified expenditures subject to the § 59(e) election begins.

Under § 301.9100-1, the Commissioner has discretion to grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election or a statutory election (but not more than 6 months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Internal Revenue Code except subtitles E, G, H and I.

Sections 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 provide the standards the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make an election under § 301.9100-1(a). Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Section 301.9100-3 provides extensions of time for making elections that do not meet the requirements of § 301.9100-2.

Section 301.9100-3(a) provides that requests for relief under § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the Government.

Based solely on the facts and representations submitted, we conclude that the requirements of § 301.9100-3 have been satisfied with respect to the taxable year ending Date. Accordingly, an extension of time is hereby granted, until 60 days from the date of this ruling, for Taxpayer to make an election under § 59(e) for the taxable year ending Date.

Except as specifically set forth above, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal income tax consequences of any aspect of any transaction or item discussed or referenced in this letter. Specifically, we express or imply no opinion concerning whether the expenditures are qualified expenditures under § 59(e)(2).

The rulings contained in this letter are based upon information and representations submitted by the taxpayer and accompanied by a penalty of perjury statement executed by an appropriate party. While this office has not verified any of the material submitted in support of the request for rulings, it is subject to verification on examination.

In accordance with the power of attorney, we are sending copies of this letter to Taxpayer's authorized representatives. We also are sending a copy of this letter to the appropriate Industry Director, LMSB. A copy of this ruling must be attached to any income tax return to which it is relevant. Alternatively, taxpayers filing their returns electronically may satisfy this requirement by attaching a statement to their return that provides the date and control number of the letter ruling.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Sincerely,

Associate Chief Counsel
(Passthroughs & Special Industries)
